

I cannot understand how Sinclair's plans could possibly be considered a fair and appropriate use of the public trust and public airwaves. This decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary, commercial free, just days before the election is, to me, a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.